

Test Probe 17 of IEC 61032 Dia 0.5 mm Test Wire

This wire is intended to verify protection against access to hazardous live parts of electrical toys.

The test wire confirms to the IEC 61032 Figure 11 Test probe 17 standard requirements. It is used to verify whether the live parts of the electric toy can be touched. It is equipped with handle which is made of nylon.

e)

Dimensions in millimetres

This wire is intended to verify protection against access to hazardous live parts of electrical toys.

Figure 11 – Test probe 17